SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1950, 120 "greenies" walked expectantly through the portals of our most noble Alma Mater to begin the eventful and long-awaited four years in C. C. H. S. we were scared but managed to survive the first seige by electing Charles Dalton, President; Dave Phelps, Vice-President; Mary Jane Lindsey, Secretary; and Douglass Beck, Treasurer; all of which were advised by Miss Rainey. Our class party headed the events of the freshman year as we elected Lila McDonald and Frank Black to reign as king and queen.

In September of 1951, we again strolled (but this time more confidently) through the doors of C. C. H. S. as the "silliest sophomores" ever. Miss Marshall advised the class and Duane Harris, Dixie Rees, Shirley Smith, and Helen Chapman were elected to head the class in order of importance, we held a class picnic at Weldon Springs and a good time was had by all.

At last our junior year rolled around bringing to the "jolly juniors," class rings; the play--"Brother Goose;" and the long-awaited Jr. -Sr. Prom. The theme for the Prom was "An Evening in Paris" and Johnny Moreland provided fine dance music. This eventful evening was topped off by the first "After the Prom" entertainment provided for the upperclassmen through the courtesy of several generous local organizations. After our class had supplied the best prom ever given in C. C. H. S., we were taxied to the theatre to see a premiere of "Scared Stiff," then to the country club to gorge ourselves on delicious food and enjoy nightclub entertainment, after which we were ushered to a delicious breakfast. Our class was headed by Doug Beck, President; Mary Jane Lindsey, Vice-President; Mary Lowerey, Secretary; Jim Hassinger, Treasurer.

After the votes had been tabulated we found that the students of C. C. H. S. had chosen Frank Black to head the '53-'54 Student Cabinet with Helen Chapman and Whitey Thomas to assist him.

The long-awaited year rolled around and we returned as "sophisticated seniors" with Ken Baker, Wayne Whitehead, Bev Allan, Janyce Buchanan ruling our most honorable class. For the first time in five years our gridsters were triumphant at homecoming and our Queen, Helen Chapman, reigned supremely over the festivities following the game. By the end of the first semester everyone was so worn out they questioned the fact that they survived the second half of the term. But all managed and spring brought the senior play, "Trip day," Hobo day (which fit most of us), class night, the prom, Baccalaureate, and finally the long-awaited graduation which brought many unexpected tears.

Dear Alumni of 1954:

It seems only yesterday, not twenty years ago, that we selected our prophecies for our glorious annual. Since 1954 the members of our brilliant class have gone their various ways with little attention to their selections of careers. I have noticed though that they have been successful in their choices and we have proven ourselves to be the most ambitious and outstanding class to tread the corridors and walk through the portals of C. C. H. S.

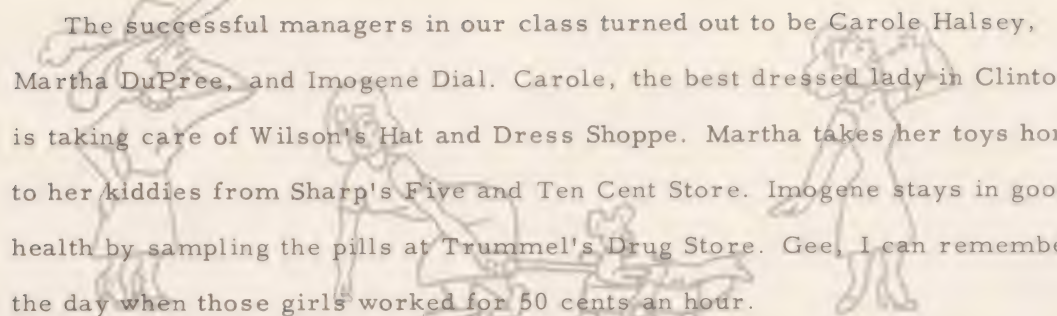

Katie Reeder and Janie McKelvey are now in charge of an old alums home (for you see there is an age limit on air line hostesses). But I hear by means of the grapevine, and my hearing aid, that Jane has been offered a job as head surgical nurse at Michael Reese hospital in Chicago and Katie will soon be teaching kindergarten in the Clinton, Illinois Y. M. C. A.

Betty Polston, Ken Baker, and Norma Cartmill are currently employed at Clinton Community High School. Ken, Athletics Director, has the number one basketball team in the State of Illinois, and Betty and Norma are designing and redecorating the interior of the school buildings that were planned when our noble class graduated.

John Lund, Terry Herman, and Corwin Burns (boy butcher) are now supplying the eats for the lucky married people: Mary Spainhour, Beverly Reynolds, Sandra Stuckey, Arlene Enos, Doris Steele, Audrey Boyd, and Donald Roethe. Their grocery is "dislocated" at 315 West Johnson Street, where the old Willis B & E was when we used to skip P. E. to get a candy bar. (I hope the students at C. C. H. S. now don't give "Tiger", Terrance, and Bunnies as much trouble as we gave the B & E.)

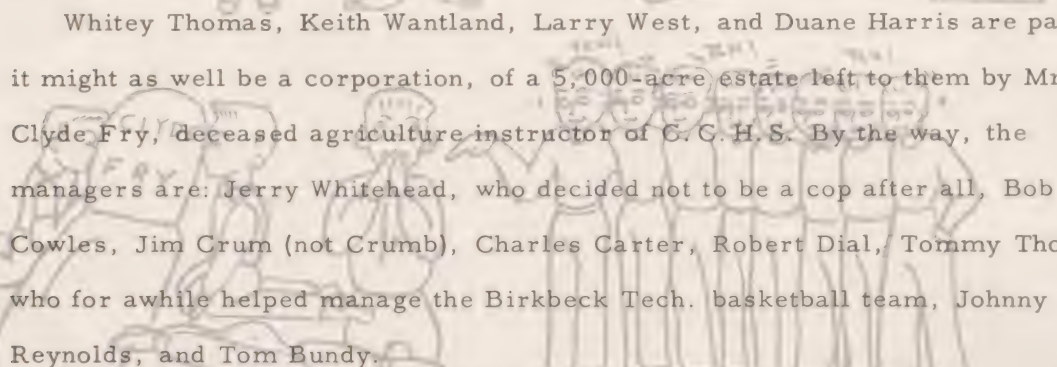

Following their men-folks to various armed service bases all over the world are Gay McWilliam, Shirley Carlson, and Laura Newberry. These lifers, in the service, that is, really have a deal especially when they're either a major, a colonel, or a general.

SERVICE TRAIN

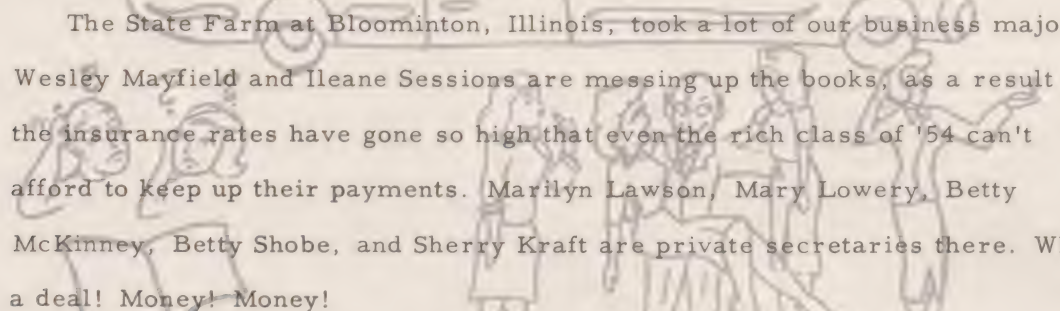

The successful managers in our class turned out to be Carole Halsey, Martha DuPree, and Imogene Dial. Carole, the best dressed lady in Clinton, is taking care of Wilson's Hat and Dress Shoppe. Martha takes her toys home to her kiddies from Sharp's Five and Ten Cent Store. Imogene stays in good health by sampling the pills at Trummel's Drug Store. Gee, I can remember the day when those girls worked for 50 cents an hour.

Incidentally, I got it that Duane Thompson helped to secure Jane McKelvey's job for her at Michael Reese where "Poor-Devil" is laboratory technician. After taking her training at the University of California, Henrietta Reed took a position as supervisor of a large hospital, and I can't recall the name of it at the moment, but it's near Oakland, California. Dixie Rees is teaching young "would-be" nurses at the University of Denver. I never thought of her as being the teacher type but that's the breaks. Shirley Smith and Sandra Jinks are pounding the floors of the John Warner Hospital to help assist the aging alums.

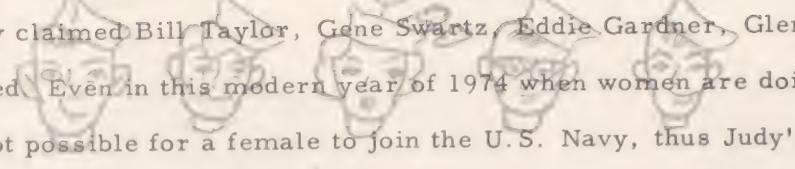

Whitey Thomas, Keith Wantland, Larry West, and Duane Harris are partners, it might as well be a corporation, of a 5,000-acre estate left to them by Mr. Clyde Fry, deceased agriculture instructor of C. C. H. S. By the way, the managers are: Jerry Whitehead, who decided not to be a cop after all, Bob Cowles, Jim Crum (not Crumb), Charles Carter, Robert Dial, Tommy Thompson, who for awhile helped manage the Birkbeck Tech. basketball team, Johnny Reynolds, and Tom Bundy.

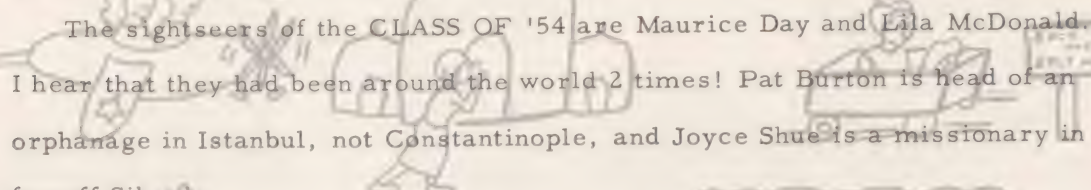

Bob Burger, who started out as a gas attendant and now owns a big fuel company, is making a fortune off the Thomas, Wantland, West, and Harris Partnership, you know tractors use a lot of gasoline.

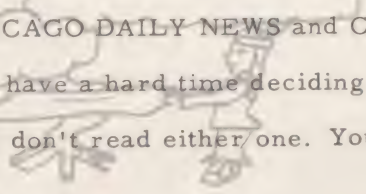

The State Farm at Bloomington, Illinois, took a lot of our business majors. Wesley Mayfield and Ileana Sessions are messing up the books, as a result the insurance rates have gone so high that even the rich class of '54 can't afford to keep up their payments. Marilyn Lawson, Mary Lowery, Betty McKinney, Betty Shobe, and Sherry Kraft are private secretaries there. What a deal! Money! Money!

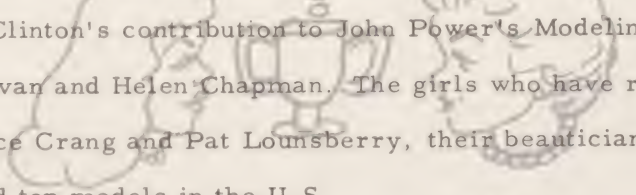

The Navy claimed Bill Taylor, Gene Swartz, Eddie Gardner, Glenn Covey, and Judy Reed. Even in this modern year of 1974 when women are doing men's work, it's not possible for a female to join the U.S. Navy, thus Judy's in the Waves and an officer to boot.

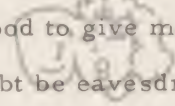

The sightseers of the CLASS OF '54 are Maurice Day and Lila McDonald. I hear that they had been around the world 2 times! Pat Burton is head of an orphanage in Istanbul, not Constantinople, and Joyce Shue is a missionary in far off Siberia.

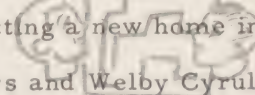

Susie Robison is Editor-in-chief of the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS and Carolyn Dresback is editing the CHICAGO TRIBUNE. I have a hard time deciding which one to buy and as a result, I buy them both and don't read either one. You can't say I take sides though.

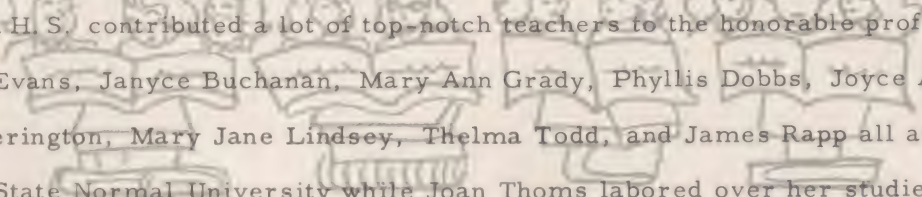

Clinton's contribution to John Power's Modeling Agency are Mary Ellen Sullivan and Helen Chapman. The girls who have really kept them trim are Janice Crang and Pat Lounsberry, their beauticians. In 1954 these gals were voted top models in the U. S.

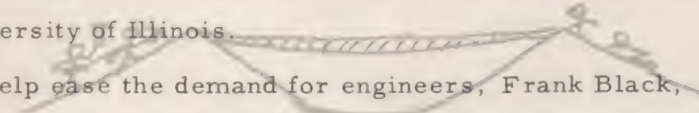

If you happen to be in the mood to give me a ring (on the phone, that is) right now, Alene Benton would no doubt be eavesdropping. She is employed by the telephone company.

If you're planning on constructing a new home in the near future, get in touch with draftsmen, Jim Cullers and Welby Cyrulik. They'll draw your blueprints up just the way you don't want them.

C. C. H. S. contributed a lot of top-notch teachers to the honorable profession. Sharon Evans, Janyce Buchanan, Mary Ann Grady, Phyllis Dobbs, Joyce Adcock, Mary Herington, Mary Jane Lindsey, Thelma Todd, and James Rapp all attended Illinois State Normal University while Joan Thoms labored over her studies at the University of Illinois.

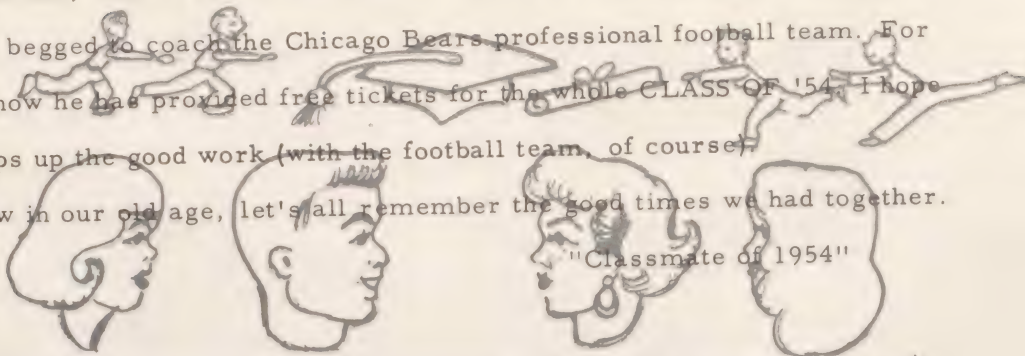

To help ease the demand for engineers, Frank Black, Lamar Bundy, Bill Ayers, and Douglas Beck lent their time and talents. Don Gray, Don Polen, Danny Hagler, and Wayne Whitehead just decided to go to college and not become much of anything, but at least they're educated!

And last, but not least, Jack Chick. Jack got a wonderful break when he was begged to coach the Chicago Bears professional football team. For years now he has provided free tickets for the whole CLASS OF '54. I hope he keeps up the good work (with the football team, of course).

Now in our old age, let's all remember the good times we had together.

P. S.

If anything further develops or happens to the aged alums, please write us and let us know. We like to be modern and up to date.
